the magic king is bored living in his kingdom all by himself and decides to create a queen and subjects to keep him entertained miracles are created what about myths in the game one could look for miracles but in the game one needed to create a legend accidents are often the starting point for the achievement of myths the accident that happened when he was a child caused him to obtain the chaotic body yet he was unable to cultivate due to an accident there were too many accidents and it was precisely these accidents that had made him so the game was merciless it was brotherly welcome to the kings journal traditional leadership and the way of life in africa have been destroyed by postcolonial republican society through an insidious program of political governance and foreign culture which uses foreign law foreign language and black magic

to suppress tradition the king's journal is a unique exposé of African tradition written by an African king who has life experiences in both worlds of tradition on one hand and foreign law in the other the journal is outstanding in its ability to explore the shadow side of law tradition and politics that has brought about a clash of cultures in Africa the conflict of cultures highlighted is responsible for the present day poverty and other forms of strife in postcolonial Africa the journal offers deeper understanding of these salient dynamics of history and politics within Black society in Southern Africa and traditional ceremonies with special focus on the rituals of the Royal Leopard the coronation of a king magic and initiation schools all presented from the horse's mouth of an African king living the experiences book 1 is subtitled from the horse's mouth to denote the firsthand nature of the stories told it consists of several stories within one long narrative extracted from an ongoing journal hence the main title the king's journal the stories are by themselves a biography of the king told in a conversational style in the form of letters to the reader there is sure entertainment for everyone seeking cultural diversity and a new way of viewing life be they game hunters adventurers horse lovers lawyers politicians philosophers traditionalists occultists shamans religious people and the royals of the world the 20th anniversary edition of the fantasy classic with an introduction by V. E. Schwab over 4 million copies sold one of the greatest fantasy writers of her generation New York Times the book I wish I'd written R. F. Kuang Susanna Clarke writes with an intelligence and beauty that seems at times miraculous Katherine Rundell a modern masterpiece Spectator 1806 England is beleaguered by the long war and centuries have passed since magicians faded from view but one remains the reclusive Mr Norrell proceeding to London he raises a woman from the dead and summons an army of ghostly ships to terrify the French yet the cautious Norrell is challenged by the emergence of another magician young handsome and daring Jonathan Strange is his very antithesis so begins a dangerous battle between these two great men which overwhelms that between England and France and soon their own secret dabblings with the dark arts are going to cause more trouble than they can imagine like Hilary Mantel Clarke has made the very notion of genre seem quaint Guardian
